

TIMOTHY CORRIGAN

#2911

19th Century French Wall Clock

This brass wall clock graced the entry hall of a home in the south of France for more than a hundred years. The lightly distressed green & black paint finish complements the overall look. While it currently still has its original mechanisms it can easily be converted to a quartz movement so that you will never need to wind it. Why not start your own traditions by placing this in your kitchen or entry hall?

15.5" in diameter.

Price: $400
