

TIMOTHY CORRIGAN

#1590

Grande French Empire Dessert Table or Console, circa 1830-1840

This French Empire console from the early 19th century is made from gorgeous burled amboyna. Round pilasters support two inset shelves and the frieze which is mounted with gilt bronze mounts in chinoiserie figures. This unique piece would be a versatile serving table in a dining room or as a display console in an entryway.
